HELPFUL QUOTES

"The human level is a simple and rather empty level. On the human level, one person is one being, and any two persons are two separate beings. . . On the divine level, you still find personalities, but up there you find them combined in new ways which we, who do not live on that level, cannot imagine. . . You find a being who is three persons while remaining one being," C.S. Lewis.

"Apart from us, before we existed, before all that is was created, God was already Love and has always been Love." Kathleen Mulhern.

"All sorts of people are fond of repeating the Christian statement that 'God is love,' But they seem not to notice that the words 'God is love' have no real meaning unless God contains at least two Persons. Love is something that one person has for another person. If God was a single person, then before the world was made, He was not love. . . Christians believe that the living, dynamic activity of love has been going on in God for ever and has created everything else. And that, by the way, is perhaps the most important difference between Christianity and all other religions: that in Christianity God is not a static thing—not even a person—but a dynamic, pulsating activity, a life, almost a kind of drama. Almost, if you will not think me irreverent, a kind of dance," C.S. Lewis.

"Jesus is what God sounds like," Pete Grieg.

KEY THOUGHTS:

Luke 24:13-27 gives us our interpretive key (our lens) for this year's study.

God is a speaking God.

God's word is a person, and that person (Jesus) is God.

Jesus reveals the Trinity.

God is one God. God is three Persons.

We struggle to think big enough thoughts about Jesus!

Looking for the face of Jesus, we are looking for the face of God himself.
